

the flexor of the hip3. groove for the sigmoid sinus

ten glorious hours by train ten glorious hours out the windows of my brain never know if or when i might have occasion to spend ten glorious hours
on this glorious train... again.

north out of Praha on the edge of the Elba riverside castles singing songs of Othello sing all a green willow an afternoon tasting the air an afternoon sampling the local atmosphere

never know
where or how i might taste again what's here now
tasting all the the tongue will allow.
