

the flexor of the hip4. intertubercular groove

oh, lord
make my shoulders strong enough to carry, to carry, to carry all this stuff the weight of the world pressing down from above

carry the weight of the precarious state while the other worlds wait for the gods to debate on the tempting of fate and the close of the gate hallucinate
desegregate
elaborate invigorate elucidate
 instigate
elucidate
elucidate

oh, lord.
