dance remix ~~~ (vague mood exercise)

1 riff

2 da da da... da da dup (beginning and during break)

3 the snow had all but vanished when they woke scattered shadows, northfacing slopes along the ridge, thin lines of smoke from fifteen chimneys

4 the sun just hitting the top of its path cold winter daylight on brown winter grass fallen angels rolling in the aftermath from the centuries

5 no beat, da da da + wooooooooooooo

6 long hours of winter crawl by slow months of hibernation, dreaming to wake and grow too much time to two-step to and fro round and round they go

7 beat only, da da da crescendo

8 tinder in the woodstove burnin down long miles of ice road t' what passes for a town listen for the frozen river to speak a mortal sound pierce the silence with a thunder crack 9 the lineage is long but leaves few clues the satellites are faraway obstructed in their views decades yet from tightening the noose pulling the ancient curtains back outro burying the bodies and cov'ring the tracks
