

don't tell your mama

sometimes too much beauty 'sworse than ugly and plain sometimes too much booty gets to be more of the same there's truth in the bottle → there's youth all around through the deserts of wisdom... old as dirt on the ground you're a baby in babylon ~ you're a snake in the grass you're a bad karma steroid for my tired old ass i'm not wrong in noting your pretty little head don't tell your mama... tell your grandma instead
